Calgary (/ ˈkælɡəri / ()) is a city in the Canadian province of Alberta. It is situated at the confluence of the Bow River and the Elbow River in the south of the province, in an area of foothills and prairie, about 80 km (50 mi) east of the front ranges of the Canadian Rockies. The city anchors the south end of what Statistics Canada defines as the "Calgary–Edmonton Corridor".

The Development of Flutes in North America. While approaches to studying the development of flutes in Europe and Asia and in Central and South America have been largely focused on the archaeological record, there is considerable debate as to whether that approach is appropriate (or even useful) for North American flutes. In particular, the apparently sudden appearance of the Native American ...
